

Street play by Seva Bharti and Quick Hill Foundation

▶ For awareness on cyber crime

Bhopal: Cyber awareness week in the capital to protect against online cheating and fraud, organized by Quick Hill Foundation and Seva Bharti Madhya Bharat. It was held under guidance of Ramendra Singh National Executive Member, Surendra Singh Solanki Seva Bharti, Organization Minister, Madhya Bharat Province, Vimal Tyagi, Provincial Secretary, Raj Narayan Agnihotri, Provincial Treasurer, Ganesh Singh Provincial Manager.

Through street plays, common citizens are being made aware in schools, colleges and crossroads. In which citizens should not share OTP, use social media only in the prescribed time, do not post your photos in HD quality, do not pick up fake links, fake messages, fake calls. How to avoid sextortion, digital arrest etc. are the main ones.

Seva Bharti Mahanagar's media in-charge Bhagwan Das Dhalia said that through the street play, theatre artists like Yogesh Shetty, Sandip Shingdane, Krishna Sakpal, Krishna Navale, Nilesh Mane and Gaurav Nimkar etc. are creating awareness along with entertaining in simple language.
